Obituary

Danny Pampell was born on September 1st, 1947, and entered the gates of Heaven December 16th, 2013. He was raised in Houston and was a 1965 graduate of Spring Branch High School. A loving, and honoring husband, he cherished his wife Theresa with all of his heart and soul. They spent 44 years happily married and creating memories that will last forever. His devotion to his family and God was his most admirable trait.

His faith in Jesus directed his life. Danny was exceptionally active in the church often undertaking tasks out of the love of his heart, not expecting anything in return. He was a loving and dedicated father who always guided his family down the right path. He relished the time spent with his wife and kids. He was a man who was well respected and exhibited a hard work ethic throughout his life using his hands to create masterpieces. Danny was humble but did not mind expressing his thoughts. Anyone who knew Danny knows he was a witty, genuine guy who loved to have a good time. He had an exceptional love for his country, especially for his native state of Texas.

Danny was a man of morals and principles that he sustained through his life and has passed this on to his children and grandchildren. He was the most amazing husband and dad in the world who will always be a true hero in the eyes of his wife and children. He made us laugh, loved us dearly, and shaped our lives in ways that make us all better people. Danny touched so many others with his generous heart and truly will be deeply missed.

He was preceded in death by his father Ervin Pampell, mother Helen Pampell, brother Rick Pampell, and sister Robbie Hesterley. He was survived by his wife Theresa, son Shannon and wife Michelle, daughter Jolie and husband Russell, daughter Mollie, and his grandchildren Keely, Keeton, Emily, Keela, and Ella.
